CRAB ORCHARD

The "flu" seems to have abated here, and people are looking glad. Jack Edwards, who was so very low with the influenza, is improving fast. Mrs. James Carpenter is able to be out again, to the joy of her many friends.

Mr. B. Collier and Mr. Frank Howard have been to Pine Hill loading telephone poles.

Tanna Thompson is home again after a long visit to her grandmother in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. W. D. Newland went to Louisville a few days since on business and returned Monday.

Mr. Charlie Thompson and his family are down with the influenza at his home near the depot.

Mrs. Mary Hunter has decided to spend the winter with Mrs. Jones, in Stanford, instead of going to Berea.

Mr. M. Walter Buchanan and two of his children, from Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting his mother and brother here.

News has reached here that Clyde Curtis is suffering from influenza in a French hospital, but is getting along all right.

Mrs. J. D. Willis has presented her husband with a fine boy. She is getting along nicely at a hospital in Lexington.

Mr. George Harris has been here from Stanford, having rented rooms of Mrs. Geiszel and will move his family home again.

Mrs. Beulah King is opening up her store, assisted by her father-in-law, Mr. George King. She is boarding with Mrs. L. F. Jones.

Dr. Burzin sent three turkeys from Campbellsville to Mrs. Robert Edmiston, the three weighing twenty-one pounds. One of them weighed eight pounds.

Mrs. J. B. Willis, who was thrown from an auto near Nicholasville and breaking her collar bone and otherwise bruising her body, is resting easy with her son in Nicholasville.

The Red Cross workers have been going early and late taking provisions and clothing to sick and destitute families, and donations from Cedar Creek and other points have been delivered.

An old bachelor who resides here and who ought to have been a benedict for many years, declared if peace were declared he would marry. So now we insist on this promise being kept, and we think we will soon be able to tell that he has changed his route through life, and intends to make some other person travel with him.

Mrs. Ellen Britton, aged 74 years, died at the home of her nephew, John Adams, near Lexington, November 1. She was the mother of the late Mrs. Dora Garner, of this place, and a devoted mother in all that the word implies to her granddaughter, Miss Mary Siler. Mrs. Britton was a noble Christian woman, a member of the Methodist church and was loved by all her neighbors and friends. After Mrs. Garner's death she went to Lexington to reside. She was stricken with appendicitis, with which she suffered intensely for about ten days. Mrs. Britton was well known here, and at Cedar Creek and will be sadly missed by many friends. Our sympathy is extended to Mary Siler in her double bereavement, for she was a mother to Mary after Mrs. Garner's death.

The prayers of a grateful nation have gone up to the Throne of Grace for Woodrow Wilson, the man of the hour. The man who towers far above anyone of earth's greatest leaders. The man who has so heroically pursued his own course, despite all the sarcasm and slander hurled at him by those whom he fed and warned and protected. The man able to look high beyond the commonplace things and lead the whole world into a peace so quickly and heroically purchased. To him was given the power to lay down the peace terms of the warring nations, and to him is due the reverence and homage of friend and foe. And he has justly won the name of the greatest man in the world's history, and now the world will be able to see what democracy really and truly means. May he live long to carry out the grand program he has mapped out, and both Republicans and Democrats are bound to acknowledge him a born leader raised up for the hour.

NOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED
R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great." Prompt and tonic. Sold everywhere.

Rev. H. G. C. Halleck, of Shanghai, has compiled a Chinese concordance. It is in three volumes and contains 400,000 direct or indirect Bible references, using over 5,000,000 Chinese characters.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The period of enforced waiting for the return of normal conditions in church life affords wonderful opportunity for meditation. When so many material things to which we have clung tenaciously have been cast into the discard; whenever public assembly for worship, which we have counted so necessary to the progress of our religious life has been denied us for a while, and we are compelled to look for a substitute, our grasp upon things really fundamental is tightened. God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, are eternal verities revealed to us in the Bible. Prayer, by which more things are wrought than we think is becoming the "Christian's native breath." Practical religion in relieving the suffering, sharing the sorrows of our neighbors is revealing more than tongue can tell the life within us. May we continue in these things while we read for our Sunday's lesson, Matt. 26:17-30; Mark 14:12-26; Luke 22:14-23; Howard J. Brazelton.

MRS. DAVID STREET DEAD
Mrs. David Street, who had been ill for several years, died at her late home at Crab Orchard Thursday afternoon and will be buried in Buffalo Springs Cemetery this afternoon at 2:30 after remarks at the grave by Dr. Welburn, of this city. Deceased was Miss Ora Overstreet previous to her marriage and she had many friends made here during her frequent visits to the home of the late Charles Dunn, out on the Rush Branch pike. She was first married to Whitley Montgomery, and leaves two sons the fruit of that union. She is also survived by her husband, Mr. Street, whose devotion and attention to his sick wife for the years that have passed, has been beautiful indeed. Her friends have much sympathy in their great loss.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Stanford People

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidney, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney pills.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Stanford testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. E. J. Cooley, 215 Whitley Avenue, Stanford, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I felt run down and tired out. I had dull pains in my back and across my loins. The action of my kidneys was irregular. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some at the New Stanford Drug Company. This medicine soon put my kidneys in good order and relieved the symptoms of kidney trouble."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cooley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

DON'T INVITE A COLD OR THE GRIP

If you feel "stuffed up," bloated, bilious, languid or have sick headache, sour stomach, coated tongue, bad breath or other condition caused by slowed up digestion, a Foley Cathartic Tablet will give you prompt relief. It is a gentle, wholesome, thorough cleanser. It leaves no bad after-effects. Sold everywhere.

ANOTHER BOX NEXT WEEK
The Red Cross of Lincoln county has shipped a box of 9 helmets, 70 sweaters, 2 pairs of wristlets and 202 pairs of socks. Another box will be shipped the first of next week. They have plenty of room for all who will knit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Howell, of Mt. Sterling, entertained with a family dinner in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Their four sons, with their wives and children, and Robert Gay, the aged father of Mrs. Howell, were guests.

PHOENIX HOTEL PENALIZED
The Phoenix Hotel at Lexington was penalized for violation of Food Administration rules in the use of flour and sugar. The company was released on the donation of $1,200 to the Red Cross.

BIRD HUNTERS BUSY
This is the first day of the season for shooting quail and the Nimrods of the county are making as severe a war on the Bob Whites as the American boys did on the Huns.

DOINGS THE COUNTRY OVER

Gov. Whitman will ask for a recount of the ballots cast in the New York election in order that "there may never be any doubt as to the result."

The War Department countermanded orders providing for an officers' training camp at Camp Freemont, California, to accommodate 20,000 students.

A four-day conference of drug leaders will be held at Columbus, O., beginning November 19, and the theme of the discussion will be worldwide prohibition.

Charles Sanders, a prominent horse breeder, is dead at Salem, Mass. He owned Uhlman, when in 1912 he broke the world's record for a mile, going the distance in 1:58.

Miss Estell Willis, aged 16, was instantly killed in an auto wreck near Bowling Green. She was riding with a party of friends when her machine struck the buggy.

Signing of the armistice will not affect the government's shipbuilding programme, according to Charles M. Schwab, Director General of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

The result of the election in the Eleventh Congressional District of Pennsylvania has been changed by the penny vote. John J. Casey, Democrat, has defeated his Republican opponent by a majority of 64.

E. H. Gary gave out a warning to the business men of the country to be calm. He declared that the temporary situation would be satisfactory and that the people should not get alarmed or panicky.

King George in messages of congratulation to the empire, the Allies and the fighting forces, expresses heartfelt gratitude to his overseas subjects, "whose wonderful efforts and sacrifices have contributed so greatly to secure victory which is now won."

Representative Allen W. Burdick has introduced in the House a resolution making a national holiday of July 18, which is the date the American soldiers first took part alone in fighting in France. It was on July 18 that the now famous Chateau-Thierry fight occurred.

Draft Boards were ordered to stop classifying men under 19 or over 36 years and to withhold such questionnaires for such registrants not sent out. It was said officially at the Provost Marshal General's office that registrants from 37 to 46 years old who have received questionnaires need not fill them out.

The War Department has issued an order barring civilians from induction into the officers' training camps, but no decision has been reached as to the status of the schools now being held. It is believed, however, that the students will be permitted to complete the courses and, if they win commissions, will then be honorably discharged.

IS LINCOLN COUNTY SLACKING?

The attention of the good people of our county is called to the fact that the United War Work Campaign closes on Monday night, November 18th. At the present more than half of the quota for our county is yet to be raised. Friends, we must not fall down on this work. We cannot afford to shirk our responsibility. It will be a lasting reproach to the fair name of our county if we fail now.

It is more creditable to fail on this drive than if we had failed on the Liberty Loan. In the latter instance we were under governmental pressure. In this campaign we are working only for the good of the world and the saving of our boys who have won the victory. How can we face them when they return if we are conscious of having deserted them as soon as they were out of the trenches? How can we face our President and Commander-in-Chief, who said "the world must be made safe for democracy," if we have concerned ourselves only with our own safety and are ready to forget altogether the great work of reconstruction in which this nation of ours must play a prominent part? This is perhaps our last opportunity to make a great gift to our splendid men who have risked all and many of whom have made the supreme sacrifice. Let us give until we have a taste of sacrificial joy. Let those who have not contributed come to the aid of our committee and help Lincoln county "go over the top."

FULL OF COLD; HAD THE GRIP
Many will be pleased to read how Lewis Newman, 506 Northland St., Charleston, W. Va., was restored to health. He writes: "I was down sick and nothing would do me any good. I was full of cold. Had the grip until I got two 50c bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills and Tar. It is the best remedy for grip and colds I ever used." Sold everywhere.

Louisville has oversubscribed its quota of $577,985 by $67,000 in the United War Work Campaign.

THURMAN K. TUDOR DEAD

Few deaths that have occurred in this section in years have caused more genuine sorrow than that of Thurman K. Tudor, which occurred at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. He had been ill of influenza which went into pneumonia, and having a weak heart, much uneasiness was felt concerning him from the start. For nearly a week he lingered between life and death, but just as the new day was being ushered in Wednesday, his spirit returned to the God Who gave it. The burial occurred in Buffalo Springs Cemetery at 3:30 Thursday afternoon in the presence of one of the largest gatherings in that city of the dead in a long time. Revs. H. J. Brazelton and W. D. Welburn each made an appropriate, but brief talk at the grave. "Some Day We'll Understand," Mr. Tudor's favorite hymn, was sung by a quartette of his friends. An then the ceremonies were turned over to the Masons, of which fraternal order he was an honored member. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Tudor, formerly of this county, but now residing at Greenfield, Ill. Almost all of his splendid life had been spent in this county, and he was 36 years old in August last. He had for a long time been not only a member but an officer in the Stanford Christian church, had a large and interesting Sunday school class, and was indeed one of the best workers of that large congregation. No cleaner, better Christian gentleman has lived in this section in many decades, and his death is a distinct loss to the city and community. A splendid business man, Mr. Tudor had amassed sufficient of this world's goods to own a nice home, and in it he and his interesting family of wife and seven-months old daughter, little Virginia Wesley Tudor, were as happy as mortals got to be on this side of the grave. But death loves a shining mark and a good God called him to the home beyond the skies to evermore look in the sunshine of Him Who gave him. Some years ago Mr. Tudor was married to Miss Pearl Fields, who with the little daughter mentioned above, survive him. The widow and orphan are left lonely and desolate in their great sorrow but they weep not alone. Unbounded sympathy goes out to them, the aged father and mother and to the family of the wife, whose parents had learned to love the young man as they did their own boys.

TWO GALLANT "SAMMIES"
The above boys are Lincoln county products, as many of our readers know. They are Francis Weatherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Weatherford, of Hustonville, and Wesley Embrey, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Embrey, of this city. Both are doing service "over there," and both volunteered to help Uncle Sam out of his trouble. They are a fine pair and when they come marching home in glorious victory many a glad hand will be given them.

BLOOD HOUNDS

TRAIL MURDERER
Marshall Herring and son, Forest Herring, of Hustonville, were here Thursday morning returning from Rockcastle county, where they had been to trail the man who had killed S. R. Singleton, some 12 miles out in the country from Mt. Vernon. They only took one dog with them but it did the work quickly and well. The trail was soon picked up and the canine went directly to the house where Marion Durham was. He had already been suspected and he was taken to the Mt. Vernon jail. Charles Thompson had already been jailed on the charge of participating in the killing. Durham was moving his uncle's furniture from a house belonging to Singleton, when they had hot words. It is claimed that Durham used a Winchester. The wound was in the back of Singleton's head.

TIMOTHY ENGLEMAN DEAD.
News was received here yesterday of the death at his home in Pueblo, Col., of Timothy Engleman, son of the late James Engleman, formerly of the Hubbe section of this county. About 15 years ago the deceased, then a small boy, removed to Pueblo, where he has since lived. While only 32 years of age, Mr. Engleman held a most responsible position with the Colorado Fuel and Smelting Company and made a handsome salary. His death was the result of pneumonia, resulting from a week's attack of influenza. The splendid young man is survived by his wife and mother, both of whom were at his bedside when the end came. He had a number of relatives in this county, among them being an aunt, Mrs. Eliza Harris, of Hubbe, and Mrs. H. R. Saufley, of this place, who is a cousin.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN
The county was pretty well canvassed Wednesday for subscriptions to the War Work Fund but this paper regrets to state that the sum asked of the county, $14,735, is far from being raised. In fact hardly half of it has been secured so far and if we are to go "over the top," as we have in the other drives, some tall hustling has to be done in the next few days.

BRING THE TOOLS BACK
Those who have borrowed from the county, picks, shovels, sledge hammers and the like are requested to return them promptly to the work house on Depot street. These are badly needed and it is desired that they be brought or sent in at once. J. T. Duderar, Magistrate.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to thank from the depths of grateful hearts the many who were so kind and thoughtful of our dear boy in his sickness and death. That God's richest blessings may ever be thine, is our prayer. Thurman Tudor's Father and Mother.

THAT TERRIBLE BACKACHE
Mrs. G. Hyde, Homestead, Mich., writes: "I had that terrible backache and tired out feeling, scarcely able to do my work, but find by using Foley Kidney Pills that I soon feel like a new person." Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys to throw out poisons that cause backache, rheumatic pains and aching joints. Sold everywhere.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to those who were so kind to us during the sickness and death of our baby, Zella Barbara Barnett. J. H. Wrenn and family.

When you have backache the liver or kidneys are sure to be out of gear. Try Sano! It does wonders for the liver, kidneys and bladder. A trial 50c bottle will convince you. Get it at the drug store.

JUDGE W. M. MYERS NO MORE

The news of the death of Judge William M. Myers, of Hustonville, will cause sorrow wherever the splendid gentleman was known. A good citizen, a splendid gentleman, a model husband and devoted father, he was admired by all who had the good fortune to know him. His death occurred at Liberty at noon Wednesday and his burial took place in the Hustonville Cemetery at 10 o'clock this morning, after brief services by his pastor, Dr. A. H. Baugh. Judge Myers had gone to Liberty to spend a few days with the relatives and friends of his younger days and was stricken while there. For many years he had been a sufferer from Bright's disease. His popularity is shown to a slight extent by his election to the county judgeship of Casey, when that county was even more overwhelmingly republican than now. Since his removal to Lincoln county he had taken an active hand in politics. His support meant a great deal to the democratic aspirant for office and it was sought by many who asked political preferment in this county. Judge Myers married a daughter of Winston Bowman, of Liberty, and his widow and two sons, Lieut. Carlisle Myers, at a Southern camp, and Bowman Myers, with Dr. Barrow's unit in England, survive the good man. His death has cast a gloom over the West End. Business was at a standstill during his burial, the whole town turning out to pay their last tribute to the friend, who was a friend indeed.

JAMES ANDERSON DEAD

The heavy hand of sorrow and death has been laid on the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Anderson and in their great loss and trouble every heart in this entire section goes out to them in unbounded sympathy. For weeks from one to a half dozen of that good family have been ill with the influenza, and on Wednesday morning between midnight and one o'clock, James Anderson, aged 16, was called to the land where there is no sorrow and no death. The fine young man had been ill for some time and his physical condition had become so frail that it could not stand the ravages of the fearful epidemic and his life paid the forfeit. His burial occurred in Buffalo Springs Cemetery at 2:30 Thursday afternoon after brief services at the grave by Rev. H. J. Brazelton. The following of his young friends acted as pall-bearers: Howard Brazelton, Jr., James Bailey, Mike McCarty, Fred McCarty, Joe Grimes and Powell Withers. A large crowd attended the burial and beautiful flowers brought by many friends. Young Anderson joined the Christian church when a mere child and was a most excellent boy in every way. It is indeed sad that he was cut down so early in life, when the years that are to come seemed to have held so much for him.

700 CASES—50 DEATHS

According to the estimate of Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, chairman of the Board of Health of this county, Lincoln has had 700 cases of influenza and 50 deaths have been the toll. A statement sent out by Dr. McCormack shows that there have been 175,000 cases in the State and the number of deaths is in excess of 6,000. The epidemic is on the wane in this county and elsewhere.

THE BAN STILL ON

The Lincoln County Board of Health, W. B. O'Bannon, chairman, at a meeting Thursday decided to leave the ban on indoor gatherings of any kind or for at least a week longer. While the "flu" is on the decline, they deemed it best to take no chances. As a result the schools will not open next week nor will there be anything any where in the county Sunday.

FORMER LINCOLN LADY DEAD.

Mrs. Curtis Smith, who was Miss Bettie Reynolds, a daughter of J. W. Reynolds, of this county, died of tuberculosis at her home in Lancaster Tuesday and was buried in the Goshen Cemetery Wednesday. Her husband died only a very short time after the marriage.

EMMETT BRIGHT DEAD.

The Danville Advocate tells of the death in Sacramento, California, of Emmett Bright, aged 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bright, who lived here in the long ago, but who now reside in Louisville. His death was the result of an auto accident. He is survived by his wife.
